

CV Norms of Steel Eyelet With Powder Coating (Grade-B Semi glossy finish), Under Collar diameter as 6.0mm and collar diameter as 10mm. Pantone Shade No. 18-0601 TCX (Charcoal Grey)

****

| ITEM                                                                                                                                                                     | MANUFACTURING PLANT & MACHINERY                                                                                                                                                                            |           | TEST EQUIPMENT                               |           | REMARKS |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------------------------------------------|-----------|---------|
|                                                                                                                                                                          | ESSENTIAL                                                                                                                                                                                                  | DESIRABLE | ESSENTIAL                                    | DESIRABLE |         |
| Steel Eyelet With Powder Coating (Grade-B Semi glossy finish), Under Collar diameter as 6.0mm and collar diameter as 10mm. Pantone Shade No. 18-0601 TCX (Charcoal Grey) | 1. Power Press2. Nickel Plating PlantAND3. Powder coating facilityORThe firm must have legal notarized tie-up with the firms that must possess Powder coating facility | ---       | 1. Measuring scale2. Vernier Caliper | ---       |         |